

SSNF/SSAHPF Joint Conference 2024

Feel it, Say it, Improve it: working together to improve patient experience

19th September 2024, 9.30am-4.00pm

Stirling Management Centre, Stirling

9.30 - 9.35	Welcome (Gillian Capriotti, Lisa Kidd Chairs of SSNF/SSAHPF conference planning group)
9.35 - 9.45	Opened by Ms Gillian McKay, MSP, Scottish Green Party, Party Spokesperson on Health & Social Care and Convenor of the Scottish Government Cross Party Working Group on Stroke
9.45 – 10.10	Stroke Care Audit Update Mr Neil Muir, Clinical Co-ordinator, Scottish Stroke Care Audit
10.10 – 10.30	The importance of patient feedback Ms Karen Garrott-Russell, Engagement Lead for Scotland, Stroke Association
10.30 - 10.45	Speaker Q&A
10.45 – 11.30	Coffee /exhibitors/posters SSAHPF AGM 10.45-11.00 SSNF AGM 11.15-11.30
11.30 – 12.30	My voice can make a difference to your work: the views of people with lived experience Conversation piece with people with lived experience of stroke with Q&A from the floor
12.30 – 13.30	LUNCH – posters/exhibitors
13.30 - 13.55	Get moving! Margaret Mitchell and Dundee Stroke exercise club
13.55 - 14.20	Biosychosocial thinking in stroke: rehabilitation of people, not just impairments, Mr Nils Rickardsson, Stroke Psychologist, NHS GGC followed by Q&A
14.20 - 14.45	Cognitive rehabilitation groups: OT and Neuropsychology joint working Dr Amy Mulroue, Clinical Psychologist & Dr Imogen Dunlop, Clinical Neuropsychologist, NHS Lothian followed by Q&A
14.45 - 14.55	Short comfort break
14.55 – 15.20	Managing fatigue after stroke: co-design of a self-management programme Dr Grace Turner, Associate Professor, University of Birmingham Online fatigue classes in practice Ms Margaret Gear, Principal Physiotherapist, YASP, Shetland followed by Q&A
15.20 – 15.45	“I’m still the person”: returning to work post-stroke, Emma Coutts, Principal Speech and Language Therapist, NHS Grampian Implementing vocational rehabilitation in practice, Ms Therese Lebedis, Consultant Occupational Therapist, NHS Grampian followed by Q&A
15.45 - 16.00	Closing remarks. Poster prize/quiz prize presentations. Close of event 4.00pm